

November 2005

Robert Lopez is a homeschool senior who will graduate in June 2006 and he plans to attend Grand Canyon University to prepare for a career in orthodontics. Currently, Robert is enrolled in GCU's high school honors program and is a member of the university's pre-dental club.

His other activities include membership in Eta Sigma Alpha--the homeschool honor society and the National Society of High School Scholars. In sports, Robert is a soccer player who has played in the Snickers Arizona State Championship Soccer Tournament, Tempe Elite Thanksgiving Soccer Tournament XXII, and in the soccer games in the country of Portugal. Additionally, he is a cross country runner for Washington High School in Phoenix. Although this young man is quite busy, he still finds time to volunteer with many ministries including building homes in Penasco and Tijuana, Mexico.
