

Nick Worman, now 15 yrs old, has been a key person in the directing of a Television Show on Equal Access TV in Phoenix for two years. He began doing this for Concerned Women for America as a volunteer two years ago and has continued to do it this year for Shiree Verdone, who does a Conservative Republican show at the same station. Many of the legislators have been on the show and have meet Nick.