

ARIZONA HISTORY DAY FOR HOMESCHOOLERS

Arizona homeschoolers* are invited to participate in an

ARIZONA HISTORY DAY

Hosted by Arizona Families for Home Education

DATE:	Monday, March 10, 2008
TIME:	9:30 AM—2:00 PM
PLACE:	Arizona Historical Society Museum at Papago Park 1300 N. College Ave, Tempe, 85281—Near Loop 202 & Scottsdale Rd
COST:	AFHE Members $5 per student; Non-AFHE Members $7 per student Parents are free

REGISTRATION IS LIMITED TO 150 PEOPLE (students and parents).

This program is designed for students ages 6-17. We encourage parents to make arrangements for younger siblings so that we can focus on the school-age students without distraction. Nursing babies are, of course, welcome.

LUNCH: Bring sack lunches and a blanket for a picnic at nearby Papago Park during the lunch break.

QUESTIONS: Contact AFHE at homeschool@afhe.org or 602-235-2673 (voice mail)

*Must be a homeschooler in accordance with A.R.S. §15-802 with an Affidavit of Intent to Homeschool on file with the county school superintendent. See "Definition of a Homeschooler" at www.afhe.org

The AFHE Arizona History Day for Homeschoolers will be held at the Arizona Historical Society Museum, a state-of-the-art cultural center. Participating homeschooled students will enjoy a true Arizona unit study including:

- A museum tour
- A presentation by a living history re-enactor
- Creating an Arizona notebook to take home with you
- A hands-on Arizona project
- Learning about many aspects of our great state including some of its history, government, natural beauty, resources, industry, state symbols, and climate.
